

REMARKS

This amendment merely rennumbers original claim 26 (second occurrence) to be claim 27 and originally submitted claim 27 is renumbered to be claim 28. Originally submitted claim 26 (first occurrence) is recited in this amendment in an attempt to clarify which claims are actually being renumbered.

In view of this communication, all claims are believed to be in condition for allowance and such is respectfully requested at an early date.

Respectfully submitted,
